and answer the question on Children's Day

Universal Children's Day is celebrated on 20th November every year. It's the day for children. This was set aside by United Nations to honour children. This day is observed because all children are special and important. It is a day to remember that all children have rights irrespective of their, nationality, colour, creed, religion and race. Right to play is one the basic rights of the children. But many don't have this right because of war, poverty or disease.

Every child has the right to: a name, a nationality, a home, love, protection, play, education and nutrition.
