

Name:.....

Class:.....

Date:.....

Essays Teachers' Day Celebration in India

Teachers' Day in India is celebrated on September 5th every year to honour the birth anniversary of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, a renowned scholar, philosopher, and the second President of India. This day is dedicated to recognizing the invaluable contributions of educators to society.

Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan was born on September 5, 1888. In 1962, his students and friends proposed celebrating his birthday, but he suggested instead that September 5 be observed as Teachers' Day to honour educators. Since then, Teachers' Day has been celebrated annually on September 5 in India.

The main significance of this celebration is to, acknowledges the crucial role teachers play in shaping minds and futures, highlights the importance of education in personal and societal development and to fosters a strong bond between teachers and students.

The celebration often involves the broader community, emphasizing the importance of education and the role of teachers. Students organize cultural programs, skits, and speeches to honour their teachers. Gift-giving and heartfelt messages are exchanged. Special events and award ceremonies recognize outstanding educators. Some schools have senior students take on the roles of teachers for the day.

Overall, Teachers' Day in India is a joyous celebration that recognizes the invaluable contributions of educators to society

Happy Teachers Day.

Happy Learning 😊