= The Friendly Ghost =

Read the short story and answer the questions.

Lily had always been a little scared of the old house at the end of the street. People said it was haunted. One night, when Lily's cat, Whiskers, chased a ball into the house, she followed him even though she felt nervous.

Inside, it was dark and dusty. Suddenly, Lily heard a soft, friendly voice, "Don't be afraid. I'm not here to scare you."

To her surprise, a little ghost appeared. It had a kind face and a gentle smile. The ghost showed Lily around the house. It had once been a little boy who lived there many years ago. He had never left because he missed his home.

The ghost told Lily that he just wanted a friend. From that day on, Lily visited the house often. She and the friendly ghost became great friends, and the old house was no longer scary — it was a place full of fun, laughter and friendship.
